

Jackie is a leadership and organisational consultant and coach bringing new methods and approaches to develop and transform how we think and how we live and work.

She loves hosting sacred, gentle space for people to show up fully. Yoga, meditation, sailing, nature and reading are some of her favourite pastimes which she interweaves with being mother to 3 children.

Maria was born in Rhodes, where she studied philosophy, pedagogy and psychology. She practices counseling, coaching and mentoring.

She specialized in learning organisations and transformation, collective intelligence, innovation and participatory methodologies applied to personal and organizational change contexts and life-long learning.

Anne, certified coach, works with people, teams and organizations in their transformation process, by facilitating the emergence of collective intelligence and the co-construction of a shared vision.

After various international positions, she has chosen to settle in South of France to favour her private-professional life balance.
